CASA FLORA

A home in the centre of Venice. A space to live the city and feel like a local even just for a few days. Casa Flora is a finely designed and decorated apartment with an Italian feel, curated in every detail and combining the comfort of a boutique hotel with the freedom of a private home.

3 double rooms with bathroom; kitchen, dining room & lounge room.

CASA BURANO

Casa Burano is a hospitality project by Venissa on the island known for its fishermen and lacemakers. Five traditional, colourful houses have been restored with a modern, design-driven taste to offer a comfortable yet immersive experience. Surround yourself with the magical atmosphere of the island; make it the starting point of your discovery of the lagoon and its natural and cultural heritage.

3 camere doppie con bagno; cucinino per tè/caffé; salottino.

*Turn your stay
into an experience*

We have selected a series of activities to elevate your stay and make it even more unforgettable. We'd like to introduce you to Venice and its lagoon in their most authentic aspects all the while supporting the traditions and crafts that make them so very unique.

VENICE

on request

A Venetian-style aperitivo to rest and relax in the secret garden of Hotel Flora – right by Casa Flora. The inner courtyard is the throbbing heart of the property, which the Romanelli family has been lovingly nursing for more than fifty years. Enjoy the ever-changing seasonal colours of the ivy as they set the tone of a magical atmosphere through the whole year.

RIALTO MARKET

on request

The Rialto Market is the historical commercial heart of Venice, where local and seasonal products can be found. We will guide you through our favourite fish and vegetable stalls and in your choice of cheese, fresh pasta and quality wines. The kitchen of Casa Flora will await you for a cooking session of Venetian signature dishes.

HOW IS A GONDOLA MADE?

on request

For more than 136 years the Tramontin family has been producing and repairing artisan gondole. Courage and resilience, but also love for this traditional craft have led the latest generation of Tramontin (two sisters) to relaunch the family business. You can visit the squero (workshop), listen to Elena's amazing anecdotes and watch Elisabetta at work during a restoration.

OLIVETTI & CARLO SCARPA

on request

Visit the exhibition space that Olivetti dedicates to its iconic Italian typewriters right under the porticos of St Mark's square. Open in 1958, this space now recounts the talent of Carlo Scarpa – the iconic Venetian architect that renovated it – and the story of one of the most avantgarde Italian companies of the twentieth century.

CRAFTSMANSHIP

on request

It's a delicate gold leaf to decorate each bottle of Venissa Bianco. Discover the secrets behind its production by visiting the workshop of the last artisan battiloro (goldsmith) in Venice. There, Marino Berta and his family has been working with gold since 1926, carrying over a century-old craft based on traditional techniques.

THE LAGOON

VINEYARD VISIT + WINE TASTING

on request

Walk through the walled vineyard of Venissa and discover the story of how a native, semi-extinct grape variety from the lagoon, the Dorona, found a second life on Mazzorbo Island. Continue with a guided wine tasting to savour the wines that are born from this special and unique setting and find the quintessence of Native Venice in a bottle.

VENISSA'S CUCINA AMBIENTALE

on request

At Venissa's MICHELIN-Starred Restaurant, Chiara Pavan and Francesco Brutto offer gastronomic experience based on the principles of cucina ambientale – a cuisine that aims to bring the surrounding environment into the kitchen while also paying close attention to contemporary themes such as local sourcing and self-sufficiency in the production of vegetables, among others.

DISCOVERING THE LAGOON

on request

A boat tour with Domenico, one of the last remaining fishermen in Burano to practice the old tradition of fishing moeche (soft-shell crabs) to see the sites where the story of the Serenissima began: in the islands of Native Venice. Domenico chose to share his knowledge and love for this fragile ecosystem with those who wish to discover the stories and legends of these unique lands.

BURANO

free

Famous for its colourful houses, Burano is an island of skilled fishermen and lacemakers – two crafts that are still part of the local heritage. Taste some of the best local biscuits at Palmisano, discover the history of Burano lace at Martina Vidal's atelier or visit the museum dedicated to this art. You can also explore the lagoon rowing with the local rowing club Voga e Para.
